8P is expanding its legal and transaction advisory services with the appointment of two new partners

Solicitor Dr. Günter Fußbahn and solicitor Dr. Ulf Hackenberg are joining 8P as legal partners.

Düsseldorf/Siegen, [09.10.2026] – The Düsseldorf solicitors Dr. Günter Fußbahn and Dr. Ulf Hackenberg are joining the multidisciplinary partnership 8P as partners with a new office in Düsseldorf. Both lawyers have been working closely with 8P on projects in South Westphalia for many years.

Recent joint mandates include advising the logistics group STL AG on the acquisition of its competitor Schäfer & SIS – one of the largest logistics companies in South Westphalia.

8P now employs around 160 employees, including tax advisors, auditors, solicitors and specialist professionals from a range of fields. The partnership offers comprehensive tax, business and legal advice.

> "With our interdisciplinary advisory approach, we provide reliable support to medium-sized companies and entrepreneurs in making key business decisions – with strong regional roots and a nationwide network."

Advisory Focus

Dr. Günter Fußbahn

Dr. Günter Fußbahn advises entrepreneurs and medium-sized companies, as well as wealthy individuals and family offices, on all matters relating to commercial and company law. His areas of specialisation include M&A, business and asset succession, restructuring and other transactions. In addition, he has long-term and widespread experience in shareholder and post-M&A disputes and conducts arbitration and civil proceedings.

Dr. Ulf Hackenberg

Dr. Ulf Hackenberg has long-term experience in advising German and international clients, in particular medium-sized companies and entrepreneurs, as well as clients in the private equity, venture capital and start-up sectors. His practice focuses on M&A and corporate law. He advises his clients on company transactions, business succession, funding rounds, corporate structuring measures and general corporate law issues as well as on international projects.

About 8P

8P is an independent, rapidly growing legal, tax and audit partnership with more than 50 years of history. Our focus is on providing comprehensive advice to owner-managed, medium-sized family businesses.

For international issues, we can also draw on the global network of our alliance partner, BDO, the world's fifth-largest audit and tax consultancy firm.
